

Rural locations should not get any special treatment for any type of FCC governed services. The normal market forces should be allowed to work for rural areas the same as they do for all area's. Especially, because of issues where rural area's have been found to abuse the help they have received in the past.